

Lomita Girl To Reign Over Fiesta

Shirley Campbell, 16-year-old Lomita girl will reign as "Skipperette" of the 1950 Fisherman's Fiesta September 23-24 at San Pedro.

Miss Campbell was selected over 15 other candidates by five judges at Portuguese Bend club.

The skipperette is an 11th grade student at Narbonne High School. The secret of her shape, she says is dancing. Shirley had planned to be a nurse but now she is thinking of a career as a professional model.

Shirley lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Campbell and sister Patty, at 226 Harbor Hills. This honor will come as a complete surprise to Shirley's brother, Dale, who has just started Navy training at San Diego.

Truck Fire Demolishes Furniture

Completely demolished last Saturday 6:15 p.m. at the corner of 205th and Eastern avenue, Torrance, was the household furniture of W. J. Phillips. The 1950 Rental Truck Chevrolet on which he was moving his furniture from San Diego caught fire.

The truck was slightly damaged, but the furniture including a refrigerator, was completely demolished.

The blaze took five minutes and 160 gallons of water to put out after the fire apparatus arrived.

Firemen who put the conflagration out were Captain W. R. West, M. Barosh, and B. Sloncker.

Land Owners Urged to Band Together

Glen B. Eastburn, Executive Secretary of the Property Owners Assn. of California, spoke to the Lomita Property Owners and their guests at VFW Hall, 2039 Lomita Blvd., Tuesday evening, September 12.

Mr. Eastburn stressed the fact that the man in public office is forced to yield to pressure groups because they mean votes. "The small property owners will be forced to band together to protect their interests or very soon taxes will be so high property ownership will be undesirable," stated Eastburn.

Leonard Kitsch, past president of Harbor City Chamber of Commerce gave a "quickie" on growing values of real estate in the Lomita and Harbor City areas.

He stressed the fact that every property owner must keep wide awake and be informed so he may protect his property accordingly.

Harbor Tech Offers Night Music Class

A new evening school class in the music field, Beginning Orchestra, designed for adults interested in learning to play band or orchestral instruments, has been opened to enrollment at Harbor Junior College, according to Harold A. McCarter, co-ordinator of the evening school program.

The new class, which offers two units of college credit, will meet on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 10 p. m. in Room 600-M, with Miss Loretta Newman, chairman of the Harbor Tech music department, as the instructor.

A special feature of the class will be piano instruction for beginners, according to Miss Newman.

RECEIVES COMMISSION

Issuance of an original notary public commission to P. J. Crawford, 1206 Amapola St., was announced this week by Frank M. Jordan, Secretary of State.
